Welcome to the fourth edition of the Lalbert Community & Mallee Eagles 'Eagle Eye'.

Today we welcome the Woorinen Tigers to Lalbert for a big day of football and Netball.

We are officially half way through season 2023! We know its absolutely flying by!

Great to see so many netball teams in the top 5 or only just outside. A big second half of the season coming up!

Good Luck to everyone today against Woorinen!

AG REPORT.

The footy club cropping program is off to a great start with a nice break to the season in mid April, followed by encouraging rainfall in late may and June providing optimism for the remainder of the year. Lentils are growing happily on Holloways paddock at Cokum, while wheat is emerging on the "tip" paddock having been sown 30th May. A massive thank you is in order to Gordon and Braidon Bennett along with Dale (Gubbo) Alexander who once again put there hand up to seed Holloways just after the Season broke in April. This was optimum timing and the lentils are off to a fantastic start as a result. Thank you to Ken and Brenton Alexander and Darren and Brian Jobling who sprayed the tip Paddock prior to seeding and donated the chemical used. Also thanks to Greg and Harry Allen who kindly donated the fertilizer used for the Tip paddock. It is heartening to know that when a call is put in for help, these guys always come to the fore. Lets all hope for good growing conditions going forward and another successful season for clubs Ag operations.

Regards, John Fogarty, Mallee Eagles Ag Manager

RAINFALL

How great was it to see some much needed rain this month. Average falls around Lalbert have been about 50mm for June. Farmers are bloody happy!!!

SOCIAL CLUB

A great night at our last social function "Games Night". Well done to the under 12s footballers who were hot in the Trivia contest to be crowned games night winners! Highlights included Zook's potato skills, Mitch McIntyres marshmallow scooping skills, Georgia Martins music Trivia, the senior footballers who thought it was karaoke night, and Patrick Kennedy's ability to squeeze manyyyy marshmallows in his mouth! Thanks to all who attended a very funny night!

Mallee Eagles versus Tyntynder

We had some great wins in both footy and netball this week. It was wonderful to see our seniors play 4 quarters of good football. Our first quarter in A Grade was so skilful and well executed to open up a great lead that we kept building on all day. Our Ressies had another win and our A Reserve sit on top of the ladder after another convincing victory. We welcomed back Emelia Shannahan and Wes Bennett into our seniors and they both made significant impact on their games with their knowledge and experience. With the bye coming up we have a chance to rest our bodies but still train hard and get ready for a few tough matches ahead against Balranald and Woorinen.

SOCIAL EVENTS – FAMILY FRIENDLY DISCO & GAMES NIGHT

What a great time was had for the children on Saturday night at Lalbert at the family games night It all started at the disco where lots of funky dance moves were seen and lots of lollies consumed. The games begun with a great mix of senior players and the youngsters taking part. Well done Jorja and Jess on another great social night. Was chatting to one of our recruits who said "This just doesn't happen in the city!! Our kids loved it". Nothing like the generations involved in country clubs.

Our next social night is the Yellowstone Ball at Wes Jnr Shed after the Woorinen game.

MERCHANDISE –

Our new attire has hit Lalbert with impact. It is great to see so much blue and gold merchandise around the ground. Thank you to everyone who purchased some items. The Sartori's said that our little club is one of the biggest orders they have done!! Go Eagles.

VOLUNTEERS-175 volunteers

With 13 grades of footy and Netball each week-did you know to run a home games requires 175 volunteers-this is mind blowing!!!! This is NOT including all the jobs committee people do ongoing with merchandise, cleaning, agriculture, sponsorship, corporate box, memberships, child safety etc etc Are you doing your bit to help out? Please see Tony Holloway-football, Jacinda Croft-netball, Maree Kingwill-Canteen, Lee O'Meara or Sarah Young-committee if you can do anything to assist. Every little bit helps the club tick along smoothly and keeps us all connected and involved.
